

GEORGE MARSHALL, 18, of Mokena, was one of four men hospitalized after a giant antenna collapsed at Andrew Corporation, Orland Park, where they were employed. When this picture was taken at Silver Cross Hospital Sunday afternoon an Orland Park man, Charles Schroeder, who had been held overnight had been released. Marshall was discharged from the hospital Monday. His injuries are painful but not serious, it was reported. Frankfort, N. Lenox Plan Memorial Day Programs

Two community celebrations are planned for Memorial Day—one an all day affair arranged in conjunction with the dedication of the S. P. C. pavilion in Frankfort Community park and the other will be a morning program at New Lenox.

The Frankfort program will be in two parts. There will be a parade in the forenoon, leaving the school grounds at 10 o'clock and moving to the village hall where a wreath will be laid at the memorial for the World War dead and a prayer said.

One hundred and 35 school children will there be loaded into busses and transported to the cemetery where there will be another program with the children assisting in the decorating of the graves of military. A firing squad will loose a salute and Taps sounded against a background of a slow roll on the bass drum.

The children will then be transported to the park where the dedication ceremony will proceed, with Village Trustee Dan Hecht as master of ceremonies. The Frankfort grade school band will march in the parade and also play at the cemetery. Also marching will be village officials, members of the Bodzin-Swinford American Legion post, sponsors of parade program, the Dominos-the girls' color guard sponsored by the post - the Crest Hill post guard, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other organizations. There will be floats too. Bodzin-Swinford post members will journey to Lincoln Estates at the conclusion of the rites in the Frankfort cemetery to participate in the Memorial Day program there.

The pavilion at the park was built thru donations by the public thru various endeavors of the S. P. C., which is headed by Mrs. Irving Rudman. The group is intensely interested in the development of the park as a recreational area for the community.

New playground equipment, a merry-go-round and a set of swings and a slide, the gift of the village was set up just recently at the park and has been quite popular. Mrs. Rudman said.

The program at the park will include the presentation of the colors by the Boy Scouts, the playing of the national anthem by the Frankfort grade school band, the invocation and a brief talk by Mayor George Sangmeister. Benediction will be pronounced and then the S. P. C. assisted by the Girls Scouts of Troop 96, will serve doughnuts, punch and coffee.

Two baseball games will be played in the afternoon, the first putting the Little League's best against the Frankfort Lions and the Babe Ruths are to take on a visiting team in the second contest. Three volleyball games will follow, Catholics vs the Church of the Good Shepherd, the Methodist church vs. St. Peter's. The winners will meet in the rubber contest. Horse-shoe pitching is to get under way at 1 p.m. with Fred Kohlhagen in charge.

The Harry E. Anderson post, Veterans of Foreign Wars is in charge of the Memorial Day program at New Lenox. There is to be a parade at 10:30 that morning. The parade, which will include an ROTC unit from Joliet twonship high school and the Lincoln-Way high school band is to form on the Oakview school grounds on Cedar road and move thence to Haven and then west to Maplewood cemetery. Graves will be decorated and a firing squad will fire a salute and Taps sounded for the war dead.

METHODISTS TO RAISE FUNDS FOR NEW BUILDING

Beginning tonight, May 23, a series of meetings is planned in homes of Mokena Methodists as a part of the campaign to raise $45,000 toward the purchase of land the building of a new parsonage and church. Berle Needham is general chairman.

Mokena Seventh Grade To Give Party For 8th

The seventh grade class of Carpenter street school will entertain the eighth grade at a party, "The Spectacular", on Friday, May 24 in the school gym. The hours will be from 7 to 10 p.m. The decorating and entertainment committees promise many unusual and surprising features.

The program provided by members of the seventh grade, will also include the reading of the class prophecy, will and history by eighth grade students. This will be followed by remarks from class officers and guests, including Supt. James Ennis and several teachers, past and present of the class.

After refreshments, dancing to the music of the Cliff Tones will conclude the evening.

Mothers of the seventh grade students, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Roy Richardson, room mother, are in charge of refreshments. Miss Mary Donahue is class sponsor.

Deadline For Fiesta Queen Contest June 1

The queen contest to be staged in conjunction with the second annual Mokena Fiesta Days, sponsored by the Mokena Chamber of Commerce, is open to any unmarried girl of the community between the ages of 16 and 21.

The contestants will sell tickets, each counting as a vote. The tickets will sell for 25 cents each or five for $1, according to those in charge.

The girl chosen queen will receive an attractive wardrobe, it was announced, and the runners-up also will be given prizes. Incidentally, there will be other prizes which the public may share, the committee stated, among them being a TV console, a portable stereo and four automobile tires, with a choice of size.

Applications for the queen nominations may be filed at Ryder's Sinclair station, Front and Wolf rd. Applications must be on file by 8 p.m. June 1, it was stated.

Fiesta Days will end on July 4. There will be a parade that will wind up at Mokena Community Park where there will be displays and booths. The affair will close with a big display of fireworks, according to those in charge.

Any profits from Fiesta Days will be used by the Chamber of Commerce on community projects. The Chamber sponsors a Boy Scout troop, gives a Citizen Awards dinner, donates to various charities as a group, gives prizes in the Christmas lighting contest, provides street decorations at the Yuletide, gave the village some modern trash disposal containers, publishes a phone book and business guide and donates the fireworks for the Fourth of July. The Chamber also installed the flasher light at Mokena and Front streets, provided some ladders for the fire department and put some bleachers in the park.

Trustee Compensation Question Still Debated

Can a village official be compensated legally for services or goods which have been purchased by the village?

That is the question that has been debated at the last two sessions of the Frankfort village board and while opinions vary all of the trustees are agreed that as long as there is a question that none of the members should give no more than supervision or advice in the general maintenance of streets, parks or public property.

Two weeks ago when the question was first raised by Robert Dean, newly elected board member, the board advertised for a maintenance man. Some eight replies were in as of last Monday night but most of them, it was apparent, had different ideas.

The board decided to disregard these replies and Village Clerk Walter Pfaff is now confronted with the task of preparing a job application form which will outline the duties required and will be uniform so that all bidders for the job will be making their proposals on an equal basis.

Keeping the grass cut along the sides of the streets and in the park will just be a part of the job. There will be street repairs and other maintenance work, including the maintenance of the mowers. It would be a full time job, if the money can be found to meet the costs, it was generally agreed.

A majority of the members believe that work can be done cheaper and the village have better service if it be handled as it has been in the past.

They point out that last year a total of $866.25 was paid out to Walter Haakinson for 288 3/4 hours of work on the streets and that a total of $199 was paid to Leslie Koenig for cutting grass along the streets and in the park, which price included the use of a tractor owned by Clyde Reils, a trustee, who has been cutting the park grass. The money for the work on the street was paid to Walter Haakinson, who had the contract with the village. Haakinson paid Trustee Milton Subbert for work as a subcontractor. In all the bill for the streets, it was brought out, including use of equipment, was $1,987.

Village Clerk Pfaff pointed out to the board that if a full-time man was employed and it was necessary to pay him $3 an hour the cost would be $120 a week a five-day week or $6,240 a year.

The village is now at the maximum real estate tax rate without a referendum to increase it and some of the board members feel they cannot afford it.

Village Attorney Albert H. Krusemark said that in his opinion, and cited an Illinois case to bolster it, it would be legal for a village official to receive payment for services rendered as a sub-contractor to a prime contractor if such sub-contract had been awarded without any previous agreement that it was to come to him for any aid he might give in getting the contract.

On the other hand, Krusemark said, in view of the fact that the employment of village officials appeared to be growing into an issue he would advise any of them not to put themselves into a position where they might be sued or prosecuted.

Mayor George Sangmeister read excerpts from the state statutes which he interpreted as banning any compensation for elected or appointed village officials whether paid to them direct or indirect. He said he was willing to abide by the decision of the board but that he did not want to place himself in jeopardy. "If we have made a mistake in the past that doesn't license us to continue it," he declared, "I know I don't want to get in any litigation because of this conflict of interest issue."

The other trustees assured him they did not want any trouble either.

The proposal that applications be taken for a fulltime man was then decided upon.

The attorney said that he thought it was legal for Subbert and Reils to receive payment for work as sub contractors.

Reils quit cutting any grass a couple of weeks ago and the park grass is quite high, it was reported. There is to be a Memorial Day program at the park next Thursday and those in charge want the park presentable.

Reils said he would see that the grass was cut.

"I want it understood," he said, "that if any of the public sees me cutting grass out there they are to know that I am doing it without any pay. I just want the park to look good. And hereafter if any of the public has any complaint to make about any of the members of this board let them come in and tell it to all of us."

Workmen Escape Critical Injury When Antenna Breaks

Testing the strength of a huge communications antenna recently built at the Andrew Corporation plant of Orland Park last Saturday morning nine workmen were injured when the outer rim collapsed.

"It looked like an umbrella turning inside out," one of the workers described it afterwards.

The workers brushed by the falling metal suffered cuts and numerous bruises but no one was critically injured. The nine who were hurt were rushed to Silver Cross hospital at Joliet in ambulances from Columbus Manor, Worth and Oak Lawn. Four of the men were hospitalized for observation. The others were given treatment and released.

The Andrew Corporation, 10500 W. 153rd st., makes antennas for radio and radar, and kindred electronic devices. Considerable work is done for the federal government.

The antenna that figured in Saturday's incident was for the government and as such was reported classified and photographs were not permitted.

The unit itself was described as something like a giant saucer, 60 feet across. At the time of the accident--which was about 10:30 Saturday morning--the antenna had been mounted horizontally on iron cradle stools on a concrete pad outside of any building and a downward force of increasing magnitude was applied to the framework simulate winds of hurricane force.

At the time of collapse, a total load of 157,000 pounds had been applied, equal to winds of 175 miles an hour, according to Andrew officials. This test, they said, was the fourth in a successful series of tests in which 30-foot and 40-foot antennas of the same type had been tested for 150 m.p.h. load, and approved.

"In previous tests, local effects had been observed at survival loads," a corporation spokesman explained, "but no general collapse occurred. The damage which occurred at the culmination of the 60-foot antenna test was attributed to greater than anticipated secondary effects of the massive load which had been applied."

Some of this weight--about 15,000 pounds of it, had been applied in the form of sandbags and water, it was explained. The men applying the weight, except for three who were working on top, were underneath the antenna. It should be explained that this antenna is not made up of massive, solid sheets of metal but of struts and pieces forming a crude sort of lace-work. The men working with the weights were passing them up from under the rims. The base of the unit was resting on supports a few feet off the ground. The outer rim was about 12 feet above the ground.

The men working below can count themselves to most fortunate. When the rim collapsed each of the men below was under an opening and while they were brushed by the falling mass not one of them was hit squarely. Had that happened such a person probably would have been fatally injured, it was pointed out.

When the collapse occurred Orland Park firemen and police were informed and ambulances ordered. The first of the injured arrived at the Joliet hospital 20 minutes after the accident. At the time hospital attaches were advised to expect about 15 persons "injured in the collapse of a building." The number finally resolved itself to nine.

The Andrew Corporation expressed its appreciation to Chief Arthur Granat of the Orland Park fire department and Commissioner Frank Guetter, of the Orland Park police department, for the excellent cooperation of their respective groups. Police and firemen were on the scene minutes after the call, assisting in giving first aid, and evacuating the injured to the hospital.

The four admitted for observations were:

George Marshall, 18, 11508 W. 194th st., Mokena, who complained of pain in the chest, back and pelvis.

Alex Krel, 20, of 159th and Ridgeland, Tinley Park, severe injuries to left arm and leg.

Roberto Diaz, 29, 15120 S. Cicero, Oak Forest, head, neck and shoulder injuries.

Charles Schroeder, 22, Wolf Rd., Rt. 1, Orland Park, right shoulder injured, shock.

Schroeder was discharged from the hospital on Sunday and Marshall was permitted to go home on Monday. Krel and Diaz were still hospitalized Tuesday morning.

The others who were treated and released Saturday were:

LaVerne Passmore, 25, 9321 Magnolia, Arbury Hills, rib injuries.

Richard Radke, 27, Rt. 2, Tinley Park, foot injuries.

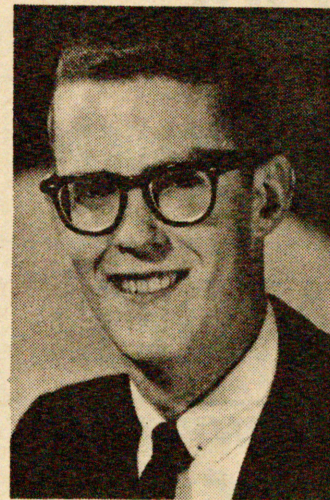

Fred Lane, 19, Mokena, chest injuries.

Pedro Paredes, 20, 5733 S. Sangamon, Chicago, injury to right chest.

RONALD SYLVESTER, president of the senior class at Lincoln-Way, was the recipient of the four-year scholarship award of Joliet chapter of UNICO National this year. The scholarship - in the form of a check - was presented to him in the name of Sister M. Theresa, administrator of St. Joseph's hospital, Joliet, for the past six years and honored by UNICO last Saturday night at a dinner in D'Amico's 214 as the Citizen of the Year. Ronald, who plans to study medicine, was told by Sister Theresa when she congratulated him that he already has "proven himself worthy of the profession" by his self-sacrifice since the death of his father two years ago. He is listed as "the man of the house." Ronald was accompanied to the dinner by his mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Sylvester. The Sylvesters reside at 4 Brightway, Mokena. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

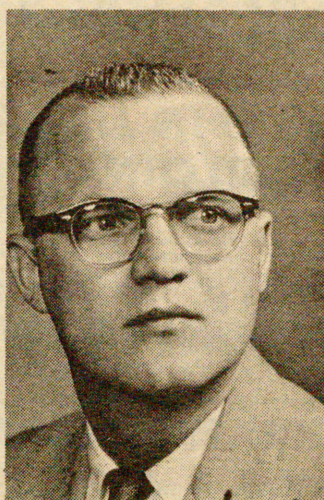

Add 4 More New Teachers To L-W Staff

STEPHEN IVENS

Four new teachers were recently employed to fill current vacancies on the Lincoln-Way high school faculty. Those added were: Stephen Ivens and James Pickerill, math; Danny James, business education; Mrs. Marjorie Holmes, English.

Mr. Ivens, from Normal, Ill. will be graduated this June from Illinois State Normal university and was employed to fill the vacancy caused as a result of John Tripp's resignation. Mr. Ivens attended the University of Illinois for three years and then transferred to INSU. He recently completed his student teaching at Rich East Twp. high school.

Mr. Ivens intends to be married this summer and his fiancée, Miss Bunn, has been employed to teach the first grade in the Mokena elementary school.

James Pickerill, a graduate of Eastern Illinois university with three years teaching experience in Lawrenceville, (Ill.) high school, will also teach math, filling the position resulting from Tom Flanigan's resignation. Mr. Flanigan previously accepted a position in the Waukegan Twp. high school. Mr. Pickerill formerly lived at Hillsboro, Ill., is married and has one child.

Mrs. Marjorie Holmes of 114 Linden ave., Joliet, will be assigned to the English department next year. Mrs. Holmes has taught for three years in Lake Park, (Ill.) high school, and one year in Colorado Springs high school. She received her degree from Colorado college, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Danny James of Charleston, is a graduate of Eastern Illinois university, and will be added to the business education department. He will fill the vacancy created as a result of Miss Kathryn Bourdage's resignation. Miss Bourdage is considering employment in private industry and is temporarily leaving the teaching field. Mr. James is completing his master's degree at EIU this summer. While Mr. James does not have any previous teaching experience he has completed his military obligation and will move into the community at the conclusion of his summer school program.

SOMETHING UNUSUAL in PTA installations took place at the Ann Rutledge school unit last week. The new PTA president, Mrs. Floyd Harmon (left) was installed as such by her mother, Mrs. James Dixon, a past president of the same unit. Mrs. Harmon, as Gloria Dixon, was graduated from Ann Rutledge and now her children are pupils there. A past president's pin was given to Mrs. Larry Vaughn whom Mrs. Harmon succeeds.

Too Many Too Careless At Railroad Crossings

More than 1,100 persons were killed and another 10,000 injured last year at railroad grade crossings, according to the Chicago Motor Club. The club warned both motorists and pedestrians to observe safety regulations at these danger areas.

Matthew C. Sielski, director of the club's safety and traffic engineering department, said most grade crossings provide devices such as warning lights, bells, wig-wag signals, or portable gates, and that the motorist or pedestrian who disobeys them is inviting disaster.

"A majority of grade crossing accidents are the result of inattention or excessive speed," Sielski pointed out.

"For example, some drivers fail to check whether a train is coming before they start to cross the tracks. In some cases motorists are going too fast to stop in time once they see the warning sign," he said.

"Sometimes drivers start across a multiple-track crossing after one train has passed, only to be struck by a train on another track," he added.

Sielski listed the following safety tips for motorists approaching railroad grade crossings:

1. Approach crossings at reduced speed and be ready to stop.

2. Watch for and obey all grade crossing signs and signals.

3. Look both ways before crossing.

4. When necessary, come to complete stop and check the crossing thoroughly before proceeding. This is especially advisable under adverse driving conditions.

5. Do not stop on the tracks.

6. Do not attempt to pass another vehicle on the tracks.

merce in 1954, the year Joliet won the All-America City Award.

Leading lawyers in all three counties of the circuit are serving on committees for the election of Attorney Barr.

An Excellent Candidate

The 12th judicial circuit, which is made up of Will, Kankakee and Iroquois counties, is to elect a fourth circuit judge at an election June 3.

This circuit has had need of another judge for many years but it was not until the current session of the general assembly that the lawmakers saw fit to increase the number.

It has been customary in the past for one of the judges from the other two counties to come to Joliet at certain terms that are quite busy one and lend the judge here a hand. The demands on their time at Kankakee and Watseka are increasing, however, and they have had to reduce the amount of time they could devote to the hearing of Will county cases.

We are pleased, therefore, that the circuit is to have a fourth judge and that he will come from Will county.

Relative to the election of this judge we would like to add that in our opinion - an opinion formed thru many years of covering courts and association with the attorneys who practice there - the voters of the 12th circuit are fortunate in having such a candidate for the post as James W. Barr, of Joliet, a distinguished member of the Will county and Illinois bar.

Mr. Barr was the unanimous choice of the delegates to the Republican judicial convention that met at Kankakee last March to choose a candidate for the additional place on the circuit bench. We believe that because of Mr. Barr's temperament, legal knowledge and integrity, such choice was most wise.

We believe that Mr. Barr would be an excellent judge. He is sound in the law and able to regard a question or problem impartially. His private practice and his daily life show him to be devoted to justice.

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND
Leading investment services have been expressing bullish sentiments of late.

Subject to the usual technical corrections a number of leading analysts are predicting considerable advance in good stocks. Prospects seem good for another record high in corporate profits.

A number of leading analysts are predicting continuation of the present bullish conditions thru 1964.

The electronic computer is now being used by several investment advisory services. One of these with rather a good record during the past several months observed by us, lists industries according to their expected growth rate.

In order of growth rate shown the following twenty five industries are listed as ranked on the basis of growth rate, - airlines, railroads, farm machinery, sugar, fertilizer, meat packing, life insurance, auto-truck, mining and smelting, automobiles, oil, insurance (fire and casualty), drugs, brewing, chemicals, bank, metal, fabrication, musical instruments, machinery, motor freight, steel, air conditioning, textiles, finance, and utilities.

Analysts have been putting considerable emphasis on the point that until recently, the market advance has been among the blue chips and that secondary issues have not reflected the increased business enthusiasms. They pointed out that these secondary issues must also reflect the better business picture on the market advance was not likely to hold.

Recently there has been a much better tone in the secondary issues and price advances in this segment of the market, have been notable. Analysts have noted that this condition confirms the improvement in blue chip levels.

The railroads continue to receive favorable market treatment as they emerge from their market lethargy of past years. Progress is being reported on efforts of unions and management to work out plans to handle the elimination of some of the most criticized phases of featherbedding. Government agencies also seem to look with more favor on merger plans which previously faced long, tedious, and expensive efforts to surmount labor objections as well as that of government agencies.

Today, it seems as though top labor leaders are aware of the need to reorganize railroading. In this particular area, we will naturally be interested in the proposed merger of the Rock Island and the Union Pacific. This merger deal as proposed, is really a three way deal. According to the present plan, more than 3,000 miles of Rock Island mileage would be sold to the Southern Pacific R.R. and the balance of the Rock Island mileage of about an equal amount, would be added to the Union Pacific to give this carrier an entry to Chicago over its own tracks. Students of railroad mergers express the idea that this merger proposal is such as likely to draw major objections from western roads.

The Union Pacific has long been rated as having excellent management. The usual tests as to railroad management - operating ratios, etc., - find the Union Pacific ranking near the top. Its rail earnings are heavily augmented by income from oil, gas and timber products from areas owned by the road. Union Pacific common stock has long been a top choice by institutional investors as well as individuals.

The road has a general reputation for being aggressive in its management and, of course, sometimes is able to progress faster than some others, because of its wealth.

Fortune magazine semi annual survey of the business mood of business executives, is reported in the recent issue, "At the start of the spring, of the 400 executives sampled in the semi annual survey, 75 per cent expected increases in their own sales over the coming year."

The same study reports that steel and cars will rise further as will other lines. Order backlogs of durables rose 4 per cent in the first quarter and orders placed by utilities in this period, were the highest in seven years.

Several major companies that told Fortune in January that no large capital spending change, was to be expected, have since announced doubling and trebling of their appropriations for capital goods and expansion of equipment, etc.

This expansion of plant added to increases in consumer goods, is increasing employment figures with increases in buying power. This increase will obviously be reflected in the purchase of new homes, furnishings, autos, etc. This magazine expects the national output to expand 14 per cent from early 1961. This expansion is as great as the 1954-57 boom or the upswing from the 1958 recession to the 1960 peak.

The employment rise and production increase is reported to have set a new stage for consideration of the size and timing of tax cuts and effects on monetary policy. The thought is that congress may adopt a moderate policy on both tax and credit matters. Fortune expresses belief that this moderation may be helpful to further advances in the economy.

The article notes that the inventory swing in steel is dramatizing business increases. Steel users began to cut inventory heavily a year ago from peaks size against possible strike in 1962. Inventories were being reduced as steel consumption was rising. Steel users started to order more for current needs and had to increase their stocks for shipment on orders. Delivery dates on orders are lengthening. Steel output in past three months is up about one third.

On basis of normal spring inventory buildup of automobiles in dealers hands, auto stocks did not rise in January and fell in February and March as the sales increased to an annual rate of 7,300,000 - including imports. Detroit sources are reported to expect dealer inventory to be no better during auto maker's summer shut down, than they were a year ago when dealers had a difficult time meeting consumer demand.

Computers and data processing equipment, is having a new surge in activity. The demand for rapid and accurate business information, is emphasizing the need of the new electronic office devices.

U.S. News and World Report notes that some insurance companies routinely put life insurance applications into the computer for initial decision on whether applicant is a good risk. The majority whiz through the machine and those with some question are shunted aside for attention of the trained underwriter.

A utility in Michigan is reported to be reading gas and electric meters in some homes by remote control and then processing statement. The data for this comes in on the telephone automatically.

Executives comment they see no end to uses of this equipment.

Attention of the average spectator at a football game is directed to the ball carrier. There are some, of course, who get their kicks out of watching the play of the lines but to properly evaluate and appreciate line play an observer must have a thoro knowledge of the game that as a rule is based on experience as a player, a coach, or at least a Monday-morning quarterback.

It is somewhat the same with following the space flight of an astronaut. The man inside the capsule is the one on whom all thoughts are centered. And that is the way it should be. He is the one that is carrying the ball and if anything is going to happen to anyone while the capsule is in flight, he is the one it will happen to.

After following the flight of Major Cooper thru radio reports last week we were greatly impressed, not only with the multitudinous details of his task--it certainly isn't just a pleasure tour--but with the performance of the communication crews with whom he was in contact.

Those fellows who talked with Maj. Gordon Cooper are among the line players and their performance was terrific. We don't pretend to know anything about the technical side of radio. We don't pretend to have any idea of what it takes to beam signals at a craft moving some 17,000 m.p.h. That may or may not be difficult--frankly we don't know but the amazing thing to us was the ability of these groundlings to understand and translate the major's remarks.

It is possible that the men on these tracking stations have ultra sensitive receivers; it is possible men manning these receivers have ultra sensitive hearing; it is possible they are gifted with clairvoyance, or possibly it is a combination of all three.

We have noted this ability on the part of the ground communications men on previous space flights. And we salute them.

Personally we have never been able to understand anything any of the astronauts have said while in flight whether we were listening to TV or radio.

Except for the sight of seeing the rocket lift off at the beginning of a flight and the pick up of the capsule at its end, TV doesn't have anymore to offer than radio. With the space craft way up there and the TV cameras way down here one can't expect to see anything. And one doesn't, except pictures of doctors, scientists, engineers and the like being interviewed against a background of impressive looking gadgets.

One hears all that is to be heard on radio and if he has a bit of imagination he can fill in the story of the flight with his own pictures. But to understand what the astronaut says in his space to earth conversations is something else.

One hears the ground man at the tracking station perfectly. "How is everything up there?"

"Wah-ra-hoo-hup zah awk mah vring zap zum," comes the voice of the astronaut.

"Roger. He says everything is fine that it is a beautiful sight. Well, you are coming in fine, here. Are you comfortable? Over."

"Ho-hum, what-rah-zill, moo-hah..."

"Roger. He says he is very comfortable, in fact he had a little nap, for a minute or two, from out in the middle of the Pacific to California. He didn't say where it was when he fell asleep but he says he feels refreshed, . . . You probably noticed that his voice trailed off. That means he is passing out of our range and will be picked up at the next station within a few minutes."

The next tracker takes it up. "Do you hear me?" "Roh-her."

"How do you find conditions? Have you had lunch yet?" "Warumslinko, buh mako zalzer, hrum awk mahzel bebop osco primum zobber coom zazum puzling."

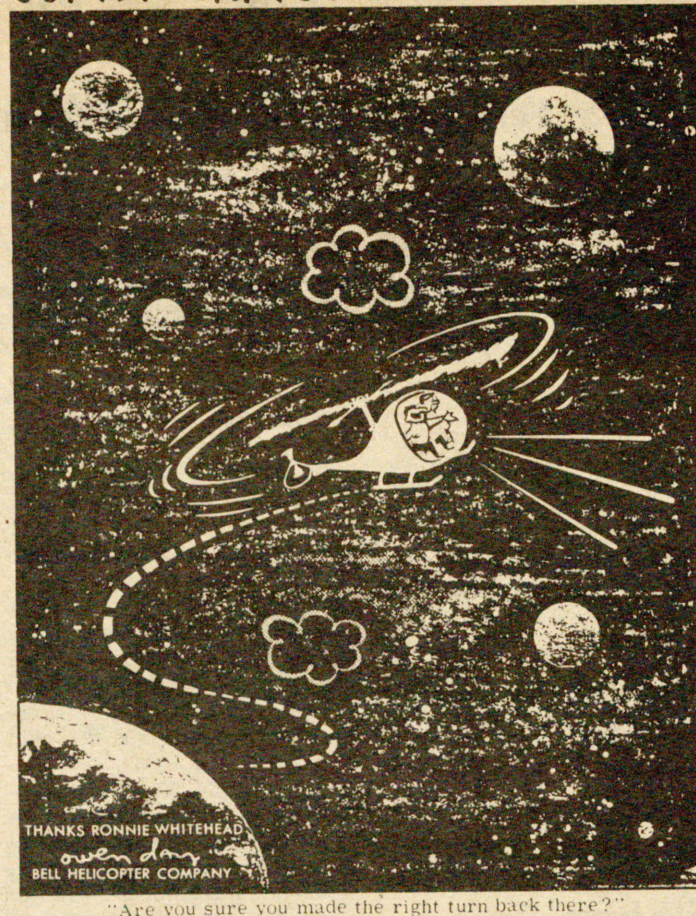

"Roger. He says those fireflies are bright tonight. He hasn't eaten yet but is going out to lunch pretty soon, maybe London, and wants to know what is showing at Radio City?"

The next tracker can't raise anyone in the capsule so presumes that the astronaut has indeed gone out to lunch but whether in London or Zanzibar he didn't know but expected the astronaut would be back in an hour or so unless he decided to see the show at Radio City.

It is an interesting thing but it would be more interesting if one could understand the astronaut without an interpreter.

Letters To The Editor

CRITICAL OF BUREAUCRATS

Dear Sir:

Even while reading the Washington controlled news, it becomes more evident each day that those un-elected officials, who navigate "Our Ship of State", can be classified as one of the following. They are just plain fools, who value their patronage jobs which are trimmed with false grandeur and do not realize that they are contributing to the downfall of our country. Or they may be opportunists who entertain the idea that they will be retained by the International Socialists, after the take-over of Our Great Country. In either case, a more enlightened public will demand the removal of these subversives.

Here are a few examples of the confusion which exists in practically every department of our federal government. The budget and our deficit spending is a fine example. The economic advisors speak of encouraging business to expand thereby raising the gross national product. This can never be accomplished until controls are removed and a true reduction of confiscatory taxation on both business and the individual is in effect.

Our defense department is spending more and more, while at the same time, we are actively unilaterally disarming to appease the Kremlin and Peiping, plus the local fellow travelers and pacifists.

The state department refers to the "cold war" while our men are being killed daily by hot bullets. We have been in a shooting war since Truman's police action in Korea. Let's not kid ourselves or be hoodwinked with this "cold propaganda".

A leak of news from behind the "Iron Curtain" states that the Kremlin will soon become more aggressive, in order to prove to the Red Chinese that they are not softening. This is supposed to be on account of their backing down in Cuba. Did they? It doesn't appear so. They have over 20,000 troops there. Over 100 ships were necessary to transport weapons to Cuba but we are expected to believe that 10 ships, give or take a couple, removed them. Who is joshing whom?

The professors in the state department should find it difficult to convince anyone who is more intelligent than an imbecile that we won in Cuba. We are being blackmailed by Castro and are paying ransoms for the release of certain Americans and Cubans. Through the UN and it's UNESCO, we are financing about half cost of 16 projects designed to help Castro. It seems that our Secretary of State believes that we can fight communism with "cake and ice cream".

The department of agriculture

As it is it is almost as difficult as it is for an adult who has no children of his own nor has ever been around children to understand what a fast talking two-year-old youngster is saying. Come to think of it, it is easier to understand the two-year-old.

There is one thing about it tho, a person writing a running story of the flight has an excellent opportunity to give color touches to the narrative by quoting the astronaut direct from his broadcasts.

He could quote him on practically anything, including the speech of Spartacus to the gladiators, and who could dispute it. The only one we can think of is the person who could translate a recorder tape played backward.

culture wants to reduce the surpluses by more regulations such as the bill just passed in the house by the city farmers and rubber - stamping members. The margin of votes was scant which further strait-jacketed the grain producers. No doubt more personnel will be added. The department already has one person on it's payroll for each 38-40 farmers.

The joker in this control of surpluses deal is the educational incentive plan devised by the department. Ammonium nitrate (produced by TVA, competing with free Enterprise) can be bought at $20 a ton less than market price. By using this fertilizer the yield will be greatly increased. Confusing isn't it.

How many will agree that we, the taxpayers, are being educated but it seems that few are paying attention or learning the lesson. If so, how do so many "liberals" get elected to office?

It appears that there is only one thing from which more and more can be taken, yet it becomes larger. That is a hole. Is this what our planners are doing, digging the hole in which Mr. Khrushchev can bury us? It is a certainty that Washington would not allow him to do any work, this is a welfare state. No one works here except chumps and taxpayers.

Patriotically yours,
Henry W. Hicks

Chilean IFYE Exchangee

A Will county family has been selected as a host family for an International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) exchangee from Chile.

Mr. and Mrs. James Franks and daughters of Beecher, will be the host family for the exchangee, July 8 - 22. The Chilean visitor, Pedro Briones V, is one of nineteen IFYE exchangees expected to live with Illinois families. The IFYE exchangee serves as a bridge of better understanding between his homeland and his host country. Youngsters from the United States are also selected to live with host families in other countries. Pedro and other IFYE participants are "grass root ambassadors."

The Franks will be Pedro's last Illinois family before leaving for California for the second half of his six month visit. Pedro is an agriculturist with the Chile agricultural extension service. While in Will county he will share the family life of Franks at work and play. He has also requested to observe area 4-H club programs. Pedro plans to use the program information in future work with Chile's 4-C clubs. The 4-C program is Chile's 4-H club work.

IFYE representatives from the United States are known as delegates while those from other lands are called exchangees. The IFYE delegates and exchangees will stay with four to 12 families during their four to six month stay in the exchange country. To broaden the impact of the program, the delegates must share their experience with youth groups, rural organizations, civic clubs and others when they return.

Hugh Wetzel, Illinois IFYE chairman at the University of Illinois, points out that since the IFYE program began in 1948, nearly 3,000 two-way exchanges have been made between the United States and 63 cooperating countries. Last year 122 U.S. delegates were exchanged for 126 exchangees from 41 countries. Exchangees for 1963 are expected to reach 135.

Science Aids Farmers To Grow More On Less Land

BY ROBERT VAN RHEEDEN (L-W Vo. Ag. Chairman)

Altho our national population grows by about three million each year, we lose almost 1-1/4 million acres of farm land each year.

How can we continue to produce an adequate food supply under such conditions?

The answer lies in applying scientific methods to the production of crops and livestock. Future Farmers and adult farmers learn to apply scientific methods in our high school vocational agricultural programs.

Each vocational agricultural student at Lincoln-Way high school gets at least five hours instruction each week in agriculture subjects. These include the science of producing crops and livestock; learning theory and developing farm mechanics skills in welding, electrification, shop, farm buildings and farm machinery; and conservation of soil and natural resources. The students home farming program provides practical experience in applying scientific principles.

With the increasing need of education for farming, only one of every two beginning farmers in Illinois last year had received scientific preparation for farming in high school vocational agriculture programs.

Young farmers and adult farmers engaged in farming update their scientific technology and management ability in post-high school courses. Progressive farmers took courses in electrical wiring and welding in the past year at Lincoln-Way high school.

Such scientific agricultural education is no doubt largely the reason we have reached our high degree of perfection in farm production. History shows that for a country to be strong and a world leader, it must have a strong agriculture.

With 8,000 more mouths to feed each day, and with fewer farmers producing on a smaller total acreage of land, adequate training in scientific farming methods becomes increasingly important. Farmers of the future must be even more highly trained in the science of agriculture.

But what of those who cannot go into farming?

Our agricultural education programs also help prepare young men to work in off-farm agricultural occupations. Farm youth trained in vocational agriculture have a definite advantage over their urban cousins in these occupations.

(Next week, Mr. Van Rheedeen will discuss how vocational agriculture helps prepare for off-farm agricultural occupations.)

PM Reports Milk Prices For April

Dairy farmers who shipped milk to Chicago Order 30 handlers in April will be paid a minimum of $3.62 per cwt. on base milk, with a 19-cent superpool included, and $3.03 per cwt. on excess milk, Harry L. Edwards, director of Marketing for Pure Milk Association, reported today.

Most producers for the Chicago market will receive an additional 10-cent premium over the announced 19-cent superpool price on base milk because they deliver to plants which consistently utilize at least 40 percent of producers' base milk for fluid milk and cream sales.

In addition, a 5-cent premium on base milk is paid to producers whose farms are located within 70 miles of Chicago. This means that the majority of producers in areas close to Chicago will receive a total superpool base premium of 34 cents above the market order base price to help offset the rising costs of producing high-quality milk.

The superpool addition is the result of handler payment of a superpool premium of 74 cents per cwt. above the Federal Order price on Class I (bottled) milk and a 20 cents per cwt. premium on the fluid portion of Class II milk.

The uniform order prices announced for producer milk under Order 30 in April were $3.43 for base milk and $3.03 for excess milk.

These prices are for milk for 3.5 percent butterfat test delivered to plants within the 55- to 70-mile zone. The differential for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat above or below 3.5 per cent is 7 cents per cwt. April deliveries totaled 528-685-284 pounds. This was 1.9 percent more than for the same month in 1962.

Approximately 49 percent of total producer milk under Order 30 in April, this year, was used for Class I and Class II purposes.

Class I sales under Order 30 in April amounted to over 192 million pounds compared with just under 201 million pounds in March.

Silver Cross Hosp. Will Instruct Baby Sitters

Sponsored by the Will County Council of Social Agencies and Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, a second series of programs for baby sitters will be held in the auditorium of the hospital's school of nursing July 16 thru 18 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. A two-day symposium for baby sitters launched last year brought out 99 sitters and many requests for continuing this service.

Applications have been sent to the schools in the Joliet area and may also be obtained at the Y.M.C.A. or by written or telephoned request to Mrs. Naomi Corsini, 727-1711, ext. 765. The legal age limit for employing baby sitters is 14, the minimum set for attendance, but 13 year old sitters may apply and will be admitted if the capacity of the auditorium makes it feasible to include them. All will receive an acknowledgement of their application.

Programs will be based on the care of the infant, the pre-school child and the child of school age. There will also be demonstrations and discussions of topics dealing with health and safety of the sitters as well as the children they care for. Some parents of both will be invited to attend and take part in question and answer periods.

Certificates of attendance and a packet of literature including a check list covering data on the habits and schedules of children and telephone numbers to be used in case of emergencies. Last year's sitters reported that the certificates and literature shown to parents increased their employers confidence in the ability of the sitters to care for their children. Detailed programs will be announced later.

The only range better than a good old gas range...

is a good new gas range

"Exciting" is the word that best describes the many new features on today's gas ranges... features that make your time in the kitchen more pleasant, more productive. Best proof is to see the new ranges firsthand. When you do, you'll find features like these—yours only with a great new gas range.

• "Program Cooking"—automatic oven controls that start and stop the cooking process, then keep food at serving temperature for hours.

• Automatic top burners—Precise control of selected temperatures; makes any cooking vessel an "automatic" appliance.

• Smokeless broiling—You broil with the broiler door closed. The gas flame consumes greasy smoke that otherwise would escape into the kitchen.

• Precise control—Countless shades of heat between high and low—instantly. And when you turn gas off, it's off. No hangover heat to raise kitchen temperature.

• Beauty—The modernity of gas range cooking features is matched by handsome, up-to-the-minute styling that brightens your kitchen like a jewel.

• More for your money—You know gas cooks better for less. Now see the new gas ranges, including models with the built-in look that don't have to be built in.

Stop this week at your appliance dealer's or Northern Illinois Gas Company showroom and see why a good new gas range is the only range better than a good old gas range.

The Arbury Hills Baby Sitters Cooperative had the changeover of the secretary's book without benefit of a meeting last week. The book was turned over to Mrs. Keith Miller by Mrs. Richard Mansell, who had acted as secretary for the past month.

Any member who would like a baby sitter during the coming month is asked to contact Mrs. Keith Miller at 479-5378 at least 24 hours in advance of the date needed.

The baby sitters book will change hands again for the month of June on Wednesday, June 19. At that time Mrs. Donald Munday will take over.

Rutledge School Board To Meet Second Tuesdays

MRS. EMIL WILLE
Telephone: 469-3257

The board of education of the Ann Rutledge school held their regular meeting Tuesday evening, May 14 at the school. These meetings are held the second Tuesday of every month. The public is welcome to attend meetings.

Mrs. Robert Wheeler attended the annual reunion of the employees of the Continental Illinois bank on Wednesday. It was held at the Harding's Colonial room. Mrs. Wheeler was formerly employed at the bank.

Mrs. George Kaehler entertained her card club in her home Friday evening. There were about 20 guests present.

Several ladies from the vicinity attended the annual banquet of the Tuesday night bowling league. The banquet was held Tuesday night at the Valley View Rhythm Barn.

Those attending were, Mrs. Charles Cane, Mrs. Ted Nijakowski, Mrs. Norman Bradley, Mrs. Joe Machtemes, Mrs. Oren Link and Mrs. Irene Wilson. Mr. Joe Machtemes attended as owner of the Frankfort bowling lanes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Coy entertained Saturday in honor of their son Daniel, who made his first communion at St. Mary's church.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coy and Bernice, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Coy and Donna of Tinley Park, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Nijakowski and son Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nijakowski and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kubeck and family, Mrs. Charles Cane, Rhonda Harmon and Mrs. Carol Harmon of Chicago.

Patrick Tim Koester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Koester was among those who made their first communion at St. Mary's on Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Bratsky and family, of Bridger, Montana, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kovar.

Michael Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Flynn was among the group of children who made their first communion at St. Mary's church Saturday morning.

After the communion, the Flynn family and Mr. Flynn's mother, Mrs. Jack Flynn of Chicago had breakfast at Ritt's restaurant. That evening they had dinner at the Crossroads.

The Ann Rutledge recreation club had a hay ride Saturday evening followed by a wienie roast. The hay racks were furnished by Mr. Robert Rainford and Mr. James Hunter. The tractors pulling the racks were driven by Mr. Glenn Coburn and Mr. Charles Jones. Chaperones were, Mr. and Mrs. William Frankenberg, Mrs. William Madsen and Mrs. James Delaney.

William Davidson and Rudy Urbano, members of the auxiliary police went in cars to safe-guard the group at intersections. After the wienie roast, the group danced and played records in the school basement.

The Bingo club had its regular monthly gathering at the home of Mrs. John Hayden of 9424 West Pine ave. on Thursday evening, May 16, at 8 p.m.

The hostesses prize was won by Mrs. Brian Williams with the other prizes being scattered among the group.

The next meeting of the group will take place at the home of Mrs. Edward Hovi on Thursday evening, June 20, at 8 p.m.

The Arbury Hills Civic Association has definitely scheduled their third annual family picnic at the Mokena Community park on Sunday morning, starting at 10 a.m. until, who knows?

There will be a family admission charge of $1.50 per family which will cover the cost of refreshments to be distributed, and the charge will also cover the cost of the game prizes.

All Arbury Hills leave open this date, Sunday, June 23, from 10 a.m. Be prepared to have a good time.

The Summit Hills Cub Scout Troop will have their MayPack meeting slightly late, June 7 will be the date. The Cub Scouts are taking on a big idea, a children circus. The cubs will be the performers. It will be held at the Scout House, the old schoolhouse one and one-half miles east of route 45 on 191st street.

The Saint Mary's first grade children gave the annual treat to the upcoming first graders. This year the new little ones were treated to a movie on a little boys life with the circus. The children were given party hats and candy to round out the afternoon.

Marie Ann Hovi was given a special gift for her eighth birthday by her father. She was taken to Chicago to see Cinemas, "How the West Was Won." Both Marie Ann and her dad enjoyed the show and the snack afterwards.

Included in the First Communion class for St. Mary school were 18 children from Arbury Hills. Ten of these 18 children attend St. Mary's school, while the other eight attend the public school.

The children attending St. Mary's are: Cynthia Albor, Jeffrey Cronos, Victoria Cumbee, Diane Gunty, Marie Ann Hovi, Nancy Mroz, Jean Osuch, Paula Sheedy, Edward Sparks, and Merry Lynn White.

The eight children attending the public school from Arbury Hills are: Albert Behnke, Joseph Mangan, Janice Maschmeyer, Michele Nyder, Eugene Piersen, Christine Rushing, Jacqueline Rochell, and Kevin Quinn.

After the First Communion mass was completed party celebrations were in evidence in the homes of the children, with the open house party for celebration.

The Kilgore family of 9437 West Elm ave. are breathing a weary sigh of relief after their three birthdays in a week. Daddy Kilgore had to settle for a family of happy birthdays, while the two children, Susan Kerri, who was eight, and Kathleen Sue, who was three, both had their children's party.

Susan had her party with her girl friends on Saturday, May 11. Some of the children were unable to attend because of First Communion, but those who did attend received Brownie Scout novelties for favors.

The children attending were: Cynthia Albor, Diane Gunty, Leah Cullison, Gail Chesnut, Jean Osuch, Debbie Broekstra, and Cathy Tanis.

On the following Thursday, May 16, little Kathleen Sue Kilgore celebrated her third birthday with a patio party. These children were all quite small, and the mothers came along for moral support.

There were five mothers in addition to Mrs. Kilgore, they were: Mrs. Thomas Wurth and two of her children, Lisa and Tommy; Mrs. Alan Borcherst and two of her children, Brian and Scott; Mrs. Keith Miller and her two children, Gary and Tracey; Mrs. Harry Donovan and her two children, Carrie and Shawn; and Mrs. Al Albor and her niece, Linda.

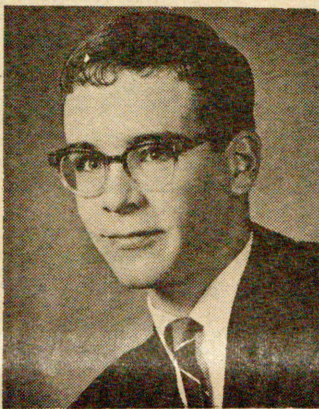

I'm sure that in another two or three weeks all the mothers should have their nerves back to normal again after the party. Congratulations are in order for the Dornseif family of 9525 West Birch Avenue. Jean Dornseif gave birth to her second girl whom she and Allan named Ursula Jean. She weighed seven pounds and four ounces when she made her appearance into the world on Tuesday, May 14 at Silver Cross hospital in Joliet.

The Dornseif's also have three other children; the eldest is their daughter Elise who will be six in September; next in line is their son Keith who will be five in August; tagging along is their second son Scott who is three. Both mother and baby daughter, and incidentally father too, are doing well.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. William J. Wilson of 9507 West Birch avenue. The Wilsons had been staying with Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Francis, in their home in New Lenox for the two months prior to their moving into Arbury Hills three weeks ago.

Pipelines transport 2/3 of the nation's energy needs

Because pipelines have proved to be the most economical and dependable means of transporting energy fuels, they are today carrying 66 2/3 % of the nation's total energy requirements.

Long-haul, large-volume pipelines are a phenomenon of the past twenty years. More than a half-million miles of pipelines serve America today. This number will increase greatly in the next twenty years as the demand for fuels zooms to almost twice its present size.

In meeting the nation's future energy demands, you can look to Texas Eastern, as pipeliners of energy, to play an ever-increasing role in moving, storing and supplying energy fuels in all their versatile forms. Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Houston, Texas.

$8,000,000,000 ROBBERY SOLVED

National Rust Robbers Arrested by DERUSTO

The $8,000,000,000 spent annually by industry and individuals to replace or repair rusted material and equipment directly or indirectly costs every member of your family $50. Some of this cost is indirect and is reflected in higher product prices but much of the rust damage you pay for directly through increased home maintenance cost.

Rust damage can now be a thing of the past, since the development of "DERUSTO", a protective coating which was marketed shortly after World War II.

DERUSTO's basic formulation is the result of new pigments and vehicles developed by untiring research to combat the rusting of metal.

DERUSTO has passed Government test methods for hot and cold water resistance, as well as salt spray resistance. DERUSTO may be used as a primer or finish coat, thereby eliminating the necessity to buy two different cans of protective coating.

DERUSTO is available in regular containers and spray cans. Full information is available at your Rust Prevention Headquarters:

Avoid Residue Problems By Taking Precautions

If you're like hundreds of other Cook county farmers, you've probably found that atrazine does a good pre-emergence weed control job on corn. But since it doesn't have a built-in switch to "turn it off" at the end of the growing season, you may need to take precautions to prevent residue problems, says Cook County Farm Adviser, William F. Whiteside.

To prevent residue problems with atrazine, he suggests

these precautions:

1. Apply the right rate accurately. Avoid overdosing, overlapping or slowing down during application.
2. Use the wettable powder form rather than granular atrazine. Residue problems are possible with the wettable powder, but most of the atrazine problems last year occurred where granules were used. The spray form allows more uniform distribution, which is especially important. If you use atrazine granules, choose the 10 percent rather than the 20 percent material to get a better spread over the soil.
3. Keep the wettable powder well agitated in spray tanks.
4. Use band rather than broadcast applications.
5. Be sure applicators are shut off and no chemical is flowing when you turn on field ends. With some equipment, granules keep flowing from the flexible tubes below the shut-off when the machine is turning on field ends. Then end rows can get excessive rates.
6. Check your equipment. Know that it is operating correctly. Some equipment may meter out granules accurately at the hopper, but accurate metering does not guarantee accurate application at the soil surface. Shorten long, flexible tubes if they sag. Low-mounted applicators present fewer problems than other types and will probably become more popular with both manufacturers and farmers.
7. Plan ahead. Don't use atrazine the year before planting such crops as oats. This applies particularly in northern Illinois, where higher rates of atrazine are used.
8. Use tillage to help distribute any possible residue more evenly. Plowing and disk-ing cornstalks in the fall, several good diskings, diagonal tions may help to distribute atrazine.

'Oat Blight Not Serious', States Farm Advisor

If you've noticed a yellowish to brownish cast in your oat fields, chances are that halo blight or bacterial stripe blight—or both—have attacked, says William F. Whiteside, Cook County farm adviser. But don't be too upset, he adds. Although these diseases are widely distributed, they seldom reduce yields or grain quality to any extent.

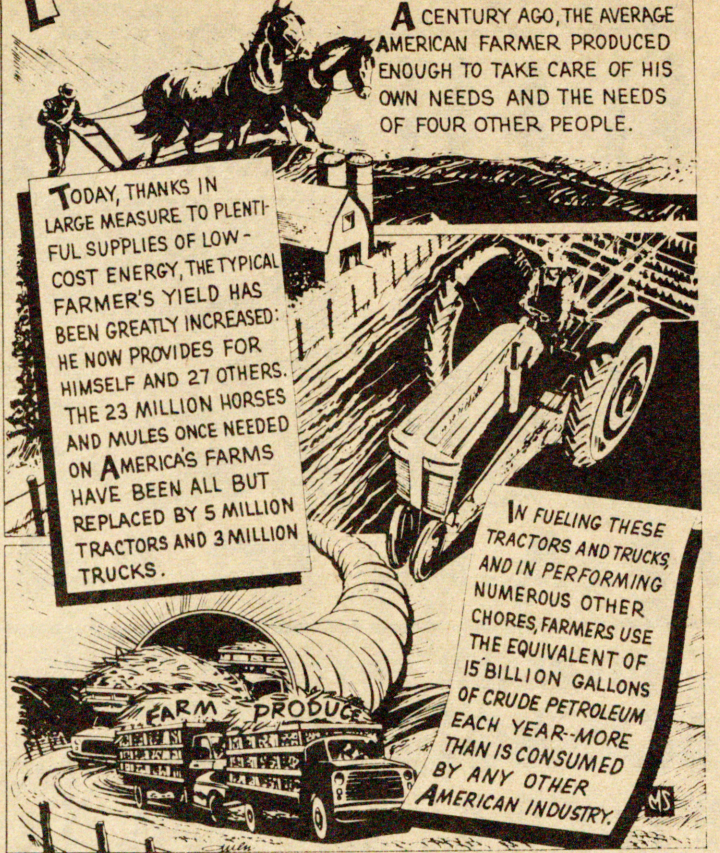

Halo blight first appears early in the season on oat leaves and leaf sheaths as small, light green, oval to oblong spots. Later the spots may enlarge to an inch long. As the center of the spot dies, it changes to a gray-brown color. The wide, pale green to straw-colored halo-like border around the dead center gives the disease its name. Severely infected leaves turn yellow and then brown, wither and die back from the tip. The disease may also infect the oat chaff. When the more susceptible varieties are severely infected, the oat head may not emerge from the boot.

Bacterial stripe blight shows up first as sunken, water-soaked dots on the leaves. The dots soon enlarge and run together to form long water-soaked streaks on the leaves or blotches that may extend the entire length of the leaf blade into the leaf sheath. The streaks often have narrow yellowish margins. Later they become a translucent rusty-brown. No halo-like borders form. Often during moist weather droplets of bacterial ooze appear on the leaf along the spots or streaks. This ooze later dries into white scales. When serious, the disease may attack other parts and sometimes kills the entire top of the plant.

The bacteria of both these diseases overwinter on the seed coat and cause infection on the first leaves in the spring. The bacteria remain alive for 2 years on the seed and possibly for another 2 years on diseased plant refuse and in the soil. Both diseases are favored by cool, rainy weather. They are checked by warm, dry weather. Wind, rain and insects spread both diseases.

Usually neither blight becomes sufficiently destructive—only alarming—to warrant control measures. But planting seed treated with a mercury-containing material or growing resistant varieties will control these diseases, says Whiteside.

Hold FFA Convention At Illinois Assembly Hall

The first convention meeting in the new University of Illinois assembly hall will be the 35th annual state convention of the Illinois Association of the Future Farmers of America on June 11 to 13.

About 2,000 Illinois farm boys, representing more than 15,500 FFA members studying vocational agriculture throughout the state, are expected to attend the convention.

Two delegates from each of the 453 FFA chapters in Illinois will comprise the official voting body. Delegates will elect officers, recognize honorary state farmers and conduct convention business.

Special guests will include National FFA President Kenny McMillan of Bushnell, Gov. Otto Kerner and state FFA officials from Kentucky, Indiana, Missouri and Wisconsin. Many parent and other guests will also attend the proceedings.

Convention highlights include an address by National FFA President McMillan, finals in the state prepared public speaking contest, election of officers and recognition of members' achievements.

Illinois Foundation FFA production and improvement awards will be presented on June 12. The State Star Farmer of Illinois, highest honor presented by the Illinois FFA, will be announced Thursday afternoon, June 13.

Illinois FFA is part of the nationwide Future Farmers of America organization with more than 388,000 members in all 50 states and Puerto Rico. The FFA program is an integral part of the high school vocational agriculture program.

FFA awards stimulate students to strive for greater achievement. The organization's primary aims are to develop leadership, cooperation and citizenship.

Episcopal Churchwomen To Hold June Convention

The annual two-day convention of the Episcopal churchwomen of the Diocese of Chicago will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, June 11-12, at North Central College, Naperville. Mrs. Allen S. Watson of Glen Ellyn is president of this group of women representing 150 different Illinois parishes. The theme of the 1963 convention is to be "The Christian Woman in Her Community" and will explore the roles of housewives, mothers, and working women of all ages, and their lives in modern society. Leaders will be the Rt. Rev. Everett H. Jones, Bishop of West Texas, and Miss Frances Young of New York. The Rt. Rev. Gerald F. Burrill, Bishop of Chicago, will officiate at the installation of newly elected churchwomen officers.

The spring ingathering of the United Thank Offering for mission work will take place at the 8 a.m. Holy Communion service on June 12 at 8 a.m. Convention participants and their guests will attend an evening banquet June 11 at the Aurora Hilton Inn, at which Norman Ross, widely known newspaper and television personality, and a prominent Episcopal layman, will be the speaker. Mrs. Bernard F. Keenan of LaGrange, Mrs. Lester Britton of Chicago, and Mrs. F.W. Wandschneider of Downers Grove, are chairmen of the Convention. Hostesses will be the women of St. John's Episcopal church at Naperville, under the direction of Mrs. Lester Broeker.

The convention is open to all women of the Episcopal Church. Reservations should be made thru the local parish.
